DID YOU KNOW?

There is a song called, “Mary, Did You Know?” You’ve probably heard it before, especially at this time of the year. If not, look it up and give it a listen. It will be worth your time.

The song is written as a series of questions about Jesus directed to Mary. One section asks, “Did you know that your Baby Boy has walked where angels trod? When you kiss your little Baby, you kiss the face of God?” I get chills each time I hear those powerful lyrics.

For the purposes of this short article, I want to focus on the question, “did you know?” We truly know so much about our Lord and what he has done, don’t we? We know things that befuddled the prophets. (1 Peter 1:10-11) We know truths into which angels longed to look. (1 Peter 1:12) At our fingertips we possess all the written revelation God intends to deliver to men. We possess the very thing God designed to make us complete and to equip us for every good work. (2 Timothy 3:16-17) Through His power and grace our God has given us everything that pertains to life and godliness. He has given us His precious and very great promises so that through them we might become partakers of the divine nature. (2 Peter 1:3-4) Suppose at the end these questions are

To Our Guests

Interested in a Bible study? Either let one of us know or mark it on your visitor card.

Visit us on Facebook, YouTube, or our website to watch or listen to sermons.

asked of each one of us: "Did you know about God and His plan? Did you know about Jesus and his sacrifice? Did you know about the Christians calling and how to walk worthy of it? Did you know about what is required to dwell with the Father in Heaven?" We could never answer that we did not know, could we?

What our God has done for us is extraordinary and we know precisely what it is. Further, we know precisely what we need to do in response to Him. We even know the results for choosing to obey Him or not. We know this world is passing away. We know the pleasures of sin are fleeting. We know that Jesus is coming back. For us the question is not, "Did you know?" For us the question is, "Are you acting upon what you know?" If not, answer this question: what's holding you back? Adam Litmer
