FOR YOUR INFORMATION

As we begin 2023, I'd like to take this first bulletin to talk a bit about my plans for the year.

Over the past couple of months, I handed out a sheet with five questions to the college students and the membership at large. It asked about topics you'd like to hear more about, current events from a biblical perspective, challenges and questions you may have in your own walk with Christ, and a few others. Several have handed those back in to me. If you would still like to fill one out, feel free to do so at your convenience. My plan is to address them a time or two each month in sermons and bulletin articles. Many of them will also serve as topics for the college class. This begins today as I will be addressing in both sermons a topic requested by several people.

Our Zoom classes are rolling along on Thursdays and Fridays at 1. We'll typically have anywhere from 3-8 join. Some have expressed concern that because they cannot join each time they feel as though they probably shouldn't join at all. Let me encourage you join us at any opportunity you have. On Thursdays we are studying Luke's gospel. Wherever you can jump in on the life of Jesus is a good thing. On Fridays we are considering the psalms. We often finish a psalm a study so any Friday you can join will usually be at the beginning of a psalm. Some have even begun inviting people they know from other places to join. Consider this your invitation to join and feel free to bring someone along!

To Our Guests

I'm going to begin a challenging Bible reading plan for this year called, "The Bible in 88 days." It's designed to allow one to read the whole Bible four times during the year. If you would like to join in, I would be glad to give you a copy of the plan. I will be writing a short paragraph each day on something from the reading on my page as well as the page for Friends at Uheights. As I said, this is a challenging reading that will require a substantial amount of time each day. If circumstances prevent you from getting your reading in on a day, don't give up! If you cannot read the entire Bible four times in a year, you may be able to read it once or even twice. That's a very good thing!

I want to wrap this up by mentioning that some of the members have regular Bible studies going throughout the year. That's fantastic! There are evening opportunities during the week. Perhaps your schedule prevents you from participating in them. My family can't at the moment. That's fine. Schedules fluctuate and change during the year. When you can, the opportunities are there. Thank you very much to those of you hosting these studies! AL
