“BLESSED ARE THOSE WHO DIE IN THE LORD”

I write this on Friday, the morning after learning of brother Dee Bowman’s passing. I did not know brother Bowman at all, really. The last time I saw him was in very quick passing at the Florida College lectures some twenty years ago. The last time I heard brother Bowman preach was at the Expressway congregation in Louisville when I was in either late middle or early high school. I have no recollection of his sermons. And yet, I did not need to read the innumerable memorials and tributes to Brother Bowman all over social media to have some understanding of the number of lives he touched over the years with his extraordinary love for the Lord and the souls of men.

It is rare for a man who spent so much of his life preaching in every corner of the country and whose copious writings were distributed even more broadly to have so little said about him negatively. Even those who disagreed with him on certain issues praised him for his Christ-like character. Many of the statements you’ve heard preachers make over the years came from Brother Bowman, the most well-known being variations of “If you miss heaven, you have missed it all.” The evidence is in. Dee Bowman was a remarkable man who loved his Lord with all his heart and tirelessly labored to introduce others to him while strengthening those who already were. His deeds have followed him.

To Our Guests

Interested in a Bible study? Either let one of us know or mark it on your visitor card.

Visit us on Facebook, YouTube, or our website to watch or listen to sermons.

Our deeds will follow us, as well. There's a beautiful statement found in Revelation 14:13. And I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write this: Blessed are those who die in the Lord from now on." "Blessed indeed," says the Spirit, "That they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them." The Hebrew writer declares, "For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest..." (4:8-11a)

From what shall we rest? Will it be a life of distraction and worldliness spent focusing far more on the things of this world along with its pursuits? May the "rest" following that life stay far from us! Or shall we rest from a life of love and faith in which all our deeds were performed with a heart filled with Christ? Now that's a rest worth aiming for. May we each be called "blessed" on the day of our death! AL
